

{ REVIVAL IN THE PARK }

with BRAD HICKS

AN OPEN AIR PUBLIC PROCLAMATION OF THE GOSPEL

Brad Hicks...
“the Gospel, the Good Word of Jesus, needs to be proclaimed outside the confines of our church.”

what? A unique and powerful two-night presentation of the the Good News in an Arvada, Colorado, outdoor park pavilion. Brad will preach/teach from the Scriptures with the purpose of reviving our faith, renewing our spiritual fervor, and casting vision for a meaningful, vibrant relationship with Jesus Christ. We are interested in communicating the gospel message plainly, through the ministry of Christ’s Spirit, and experiencing the natural outcome of the Gospel’s sole intent: Setting people free in Christ from fear and bondage to anything that keeps us from authentic joy and peace with God.

who is invited? You, and anyone you would like to bring. Come prepared in prayer if you’re able—if you’re not in a place in your life where prayer is possible that’s fine too. All are welcome. God will be with us and He desires to meet us and strengthen our hearts and minds during these two nights of meeting in His Name.

when?

Dates: Fri.–Sat., June 11–12, 2010

Hours: 6:15–8:30 p.m.

where? Pioneer Pavilion, 9101 Ralston Rd., Arvada, Colorado. (Hoskinson Park, just a few steps east of the Garrison Street Recreation Center at the corner of Garrison St. and Ralston Rd., and south of Brooks Dr.)

other stuff: Unlimited parking is available in the Garrison Street Rec Center parking lot, and restrooms are available in the Center as well. The pavilion is big, seating around 100.

what’s not provided: No child care. Feel free to bring your kids, but two hours is a long time for most youngins. No food, so please eat dinner before you come.

in cahoots with GOODWORD :: Hebrews 6:4–5

tel: 720.988.7392 | support@hisgoodword.com | www.hisgoodword.com